About College: Mahatma Phule Mahavidyalaya, Ahmedpur established in June 2000 under the aegis of Kisan Shikshan Prasarak Mandal, Udgir, Dist. Latur. The college is situated in semi-urban area and working with the vision, “Bahujan Hitay Bahujan Sukhay”. (Welfare and Betterment of the Masses) and mission to uplift the rural youth with good education. It is a single-faculty, grant-in-aid institution affiliated to S.R.T.M. University, Nanded and the U.G.C. has accorded status of 2(f) and 12 (b) to the college. The NAAC assessed it and accredited it “B” Grade. Mahatma Phule Mahavidyalaya created its own identity for quality education within the little span of time. Today the college is recognized as one of the well-known centers of higher education in this locality and university. It also has a distance mode center of Y.C.M.O. University, Nashik. The college, with its focus on its vision, mission and objectives, is emerging as one of the premier institutions. An efficient, well-qualified and dedicated staff along with the best administrative faculty and good infrastructure have been the strengths of the institution and this, in turn, has contributed to a good teaching-learning environment.

About Department: The Department of English has started functioning since June 2000, with the establishment of Mahatma Phule Mahavidyalaya, Ahmedpur. The Department is offering English as compulsory as well as optional subjects at the undergraduate level. At present, the Department of English is the largest department of the college with largest enrolment of the students, good results and active participation of the faculty in teaching, research, publication and co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. The Department has tradition of good results and active participation in various activities.

About the Seminar: Literature is a reflection of society, which is widely accepted fact. Literature reflects the attitude and perception of society, its virtues and vices. Literature reflects the vices of society and with aim of making aware of the mistakes and making amends. Literature depicts order to understand how literature reflects the society it is necessary to observe the relationship between literature and society. With the changing time literature has recorded the changing facets of society and evolving culture. How this change is taking place? What are the changes? And Is the change society and culture constructive or destructive? This kind of study is a priority for academic scholars. Indian Literature
